Amsterdam, Nov. 29.—Count Wilhelm Hohengollern soon will leave Amerongen eastle to undergo treatment for his shattered nerves in a samatorium near Arghem, it was understored here today. He probably will two for some weeks at the home of Doctor Lingbeek at Rinkum.

The former kaiser is reported to be subject to frequent fits of violent weeping. Some days he is unable to write, owing to spells of trembling.

In well informed circles at The Hague it is expected that the allies soon will joint in inducing Holland, to expel Wilhelm, offering him the choice of returning to the German frontier or surrendering to the entente.

Wilhelm seldom goes outside the castle gardens. During one of his first walks he met an interned German solder who refused to sailes.

walks he met an interned German sol-dier, who refused to salute. The for-mer kaiser demanded an explanation. The soldier silently produced a small red flag. An attendant asked him if he realized it was the kaiser who stood fore him.

"Damn the Hohenzollerns! Six of y brothers died for them!" shouled the soldier.
Since then the former kaiser has taken no walks, always riding in a closed automobile on his infrequent trips away from the castle.

ABOLISH DRAFT BOARDS

When Work Is Completed, Organization Will Be Distanced.

Local and district draft boards will be abolished as soon as the work now in hand; if disposed of. That is the notice which has been sent to Charles S. Huffman, adjutant general, by Provost Marshal Crowder. Efforts are now being made to complete payment of board members and as soon as possible the selective service organization of the state will cease to exist.

All boards in the state have been asked to speed up the classification work to be handled under existing conditions. As soon as this work can be completed and boards have sent their vouchers to Topeka, the disbursing department under direction of Maj. R. Neil Rahn will make final payment and close up the business. Nearly 600 men and women are connected with local boards and are affected by the new order.
